

義滋公 二十八日 二

通 左

Handwritten Japanese text on a folded paper strip, likely an envelope flap or a small note. The text is written in cursive (sōsho) style. The characters are difficult to decipher due to the cursive nature and some fading, but they appear to be arranged in vertical columns. The text includes the characters 義滋公 (Yoshitsune no Kami) and 三十八内 (Sanjūhachijū no Uchi).
